

HERE ARE THE FACTS...

You wanted greater security . . .

We built these machines with a hinged guard-style door and high security locks.

You wanted more control over the cash flow . . .

We added a locked cash box so you stay in control of the money while your attendants keep the vender filled.

You wanted a vender that could take your customers' abuse . . .

We simplified the vend cycle and developed an empty lock-out system which reduces user abuse.

You wanted to better promote your products . . .

The front door of our new vender offers the largest advertising display area of any vender available.

Plus, we back these features up with the best customer service available. . .

. . . Advantages you expect from the industry leader.
